From the President's Desk by Steve Collins

Happy Easter Mustangers,
I guess everyone had a great Easter and for some a great spring break. I have been waiting on a cruiser console to put in the 71 conv. I will store the original away and enjoy cup holders for some great cruising.

I know we should be getting info on the Rt 66 trip and I will have more on the Perryville show. David has info on the Crain show and Jim on the Trotter show, we should get the last info on the Texarkana show trip plans also. Wow! We have had some new younger folks asking about the club and what we do for fun and driving our stangs. Our younger members and owners have newer cars and want to drive. We need to have monthly events to give them that chance.

I am so ready for some good weather so I can drive the old mustangs. See you at the meeting.

Steve

CAM Meeting Minutes-3/12/15

President Steve Collins called the meeting to order at 7:02 P.M.

New member Chris Wise was introduced.

A motion was made and accepted to approve the minutes from last month's meeting as posted in the Pony Express.

Carol Sipes gave the treasurer's report. We have 40 current members.

A motion was made and accepted to approve the treasurer's report.

Tom Sipes gave the MCA report. The MCA national directors' meeting was held on the sidelines of the Barrett Jackson auto auction. There is a new president and several new officers. They have hired an accountant to audit the last several years.

Vice President David Green gave an update on the annual CAM show. He has received some door prizes from Year 1. He has produced 3 or 4 rough drafts for a brochure for Crain to give to new Mustang owners. He also mentioned that the club needs to determine a way to even up membership dues for people that buy a Mustang later in the year.

It was announced that Charlotte Fason will have the details of the club trip on Route 66 for this summer firmed up by the next meeting.

David Green asked the question of when the website hosting is up for renewal.

Steve Collins asked that the membership check their calendars for a potential cookout at his house on April 25th.

Meeting adjourned at 7:30 P.M.
