From the President's Desk

by David Green

Hello fellow CAM members: Effective December 31, 2017, Kevin Tullos has resigned the 2018 presidency position he was elected to. He resigned to me, David Green the 2017 Secretary, in writing in accordance with CAM By-Laws. He was in communication with myself and 2017/2018 Vice President Jim Clark for a few days prior to that. At that time, Jim indicated his willingness to continue in the vice president position for 2018. I have indicated my willingness to serve as CAM president for 2018. In accordance with CAM By-Laws, we will have a Special Election at the January 11, 2018 business meeting. At the start of the meeting, MCA National Director Tom Sipes will call the membership to order. He will open nominations for 2018 president from the floor. The candidate elected at that meeting will immediately start serving in the president's position at that meeting.
