From the President's Desk

by James Ireland

Central Arkansas Mustangers,
Hello ladies and gentlemen. The most exciting time of the year for CAM is upon us. This is the last newsletter before our Annual Regional Mustang and Ford Show. Our monthly meeting is Thursday Sept. 14 at Larry's. From my perspective, we are on target to sponsor one of the best Regional shows to date. We need "all boots on deck", and if you are a member please plan on bringing your car out and being a part of this event. You are not obligated to complete (show), in fact, most members choose to display their cars, it's strictly up to you. Also, invite anyone you know who might have a 'Stang.

I'm proud to say that everything appears to be in place. We will break this down at the meeting. We still need to complete some final details and assignments, so please attend this important meeting.

We will be preregister members cars at the meeting on Thursday. Tee-Shirts and registration forms will be on site, and we ask that you preregister your car(s). This will speed up the process on the day of the show. Fees are $25 show cars, $15 for displays and the car corral.

Thanks to Dale and Bev for inviting us to their museum tour and catfish dinner. It was really over the top and everyone had a ball. Looking forward to seeing you at the meeting and show. Keep those Ponies galloping!!!

August Meeting Minutes

by David Green

The Central Arkansas Mustangs held their regular monthly business meeting at Larry's Pizza West, Little Rock, on August 18, 2017. President James Ireland called the 39 attendees to order at 7:00 PM. The July meeting minutes, as published in the August Pony Express, were approved. Treasurer Carol Sipes gave her report, which was approved. We now have 83 paid memberships. National Director Tom Sipes is still going to attend the MCA meeting in Dallas in October. New members Bill and Lauren Zilk were introduced. They have a 2014 GT. Guest Art Richards announced a car show at Little Rock Air Force Base on November 4, 10 AM-2 PM. Admission is free, but space is limited. There are restrictions on what you may carry on base.

Tom Sipes has contacted two hotels nearby to our September 24 show. Holiday Inn Express on Col. Glenn will have rooms for $89 per night. La Quinta at Shackleford Crossings has them for $85 per night. Plus taxes in all cases. CAM members should plan to come to Crain Ford on Saturday 9-23 at 1 PM for goodie bag stuffing. We need door prizes appropriate for men or ladies. Dale Mashburn gave details about the catfish supper at his museum on August 20. Meeting adjourned at 7:50 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

David Green

Our annual regional show is coming up at the end of the month. All club members who plan on showing a car, either judged, non judged/display only, or the pony corral, should preregister Thursday at the club meeting. This will help speed up registration the day of the show.

Our show shirts are in as well, and will be available at the meeting also.
